Expectations of Clergy Collar Comedy Tour

It is expected that Clergy Collar Comedy Tour...

1. ...will produce a quality comedic event.
2. ...not produce "off color" or profane humor that will offend the sensibilities of families.
3. ...will refund the deposit in full if for any reason the comedy team encounters emergencies requiring them to miss the event (transportation emergencies, health crises, death in the family, etc.).
4. ...will write a check for $5 for every ticket sold to the host organization before the team leaves town.

Expectations of the host organization

It is expected that the host organization...

1. ...will do the best job possible to promote the event.
2. ...will provide the security and needed staff (sound technician, security, for example) for the evening.
3. ...will order the tickets online and receive them in the mail.
4. ...will send money for half of the tickets ordered to the Clergy Collar Comedy Tour office four weeks in advance of the event.
5. ...will pay the balance of the tickets sold the night of the event and turn in any unsold tickets.
6. ...will pay a service charge of $20 per 100 unsold tickets (only service charge or risk to the host organization).
